

 Strong connections

Children's sense of belonging is built through strong connections to family, culture and community

Local festivals, community gardens, sporting and cultural activities all offer opportunities to connect and belong.

Feeling connected to community is good for families

For more information visit www.qld.gov.au/earlydevelopmentstory

Queensland
Government