Learning possibilities

Text: Kerr, J 2006, The tiger who came to tea, HarperCollins Children's Books, London.

Engage

- Step 1. If you have this book at home, encourage your child/children to predict what the story is about from the cover. If not use the suggested video link in the resources box and watch the story together.
- Step 2. Read/watch the story.
- Step 3. Here are some questions to ask your child/children about the story.
 - 1. Who came to have tea? (tiger)
 - 2. What did the tiger eat first? (sandwiches)
 - Look closely at the tigers face when he is sitting at the table. How do you think he's feeling? (happy because he is smiling)
 - 4. Why couldn't Sophie have a bath? (because the tiger drank all the water)

Respond

Invite your child/children to talk about the story using this question as a prompt, 'If a tiger knocked on your door, would you let him in?' The question opens up possibilities for children to answer and justify their answer, for example: 'No 'cause tigers' growl and might eat you up!' Talk about how the author has used her imagination in creating the story e.g. would a tiger really come to tea?

Extend

- Create a storytelling basket for you child/children to use with a tea set (or cups/plates spoons from the cupboard), a plastic tiger figure or puppet. If you don't have a tiger why not have another animal come to tea?
- Re-enact the story with a table cloth, tea set, sandwiches and patty cakes or biscuits and fruit.
- Make tiger coloured playdough (orange and black) for your child/children to use. As you and your child/children use the dough talk about the ways that you can push, pull, squeeze, pound and poke the dough (this helps with their language development).
