

National Disability Insurance Scheme – Information for ECEC services

The National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) is now available throughout Queensland. The NDIS funds supports that help eligible people with permanent disability in their daily lives to participate in the community, and reach their goals.

Children aged birth to 6 years

Children aged birth to 6 years who are diagnosed with a disability or who are experiencing developmental delay may be eligible for support through the NDIS Early Childhood Early Intervention (ECEI) supports. Early Childhood Partners coordinate these supports and can support both children and their families to build skills for daily living.

Families can contact Early Childhood Partners across Queensland (details over page) to access supports.

Older children

Children aged 7 years and older, with permanent disability, may be able to access supports from the NDIS.

Families can contact the NDIS Local Area Coordination Partners located across Queensland (details over page) if they need help accessing the NDIS.

NDIS Partners

Some areas of Queensland do not have partners. For families living in one of these areas, someone from the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) will work with them to connect them to the NDIS or to supports in their community.

To find your nearest NDIA office visit
<https://www.ndis.gov.au/contact/locations>.

Referrals for families to the NDIS

For help accessing the NDIS, families can contact the NDIS Early Childhood Partners and Local Area Coordination Partners. Families can also find more information at <http://www.ndis.gov.au> or contact the NDIS on:

- › general number: 1800 800 110
- › text telephone users: 1800 555 677
- › speak and listen users: 1800 555 727
- › for people who need help with English: 131 450

Families can also get help through advocacy services funded by the Queensland Government. For more information visit:
